APPLICATION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING
EMPLOYMENT OF BAKER, DONELSON, BEARMAN, CALDWELL & BERKOWITZ,
P.C. AS CO-COUNSEL FOR THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED
CREDITORS OF ATLANTA LIGHT BULBS, INC. NUNC PRO TUNC TO JUNE 10, 2022

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”), appointed by the United States Trustee on June 8, 2022, as subsequently amended, in the above-captioned bankruptcy case, hereby submits this application (the “Application”) for authority to retain and employ Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, P.C. (“Baker Donelson”) as co-counsel for the Committee nunc pro tunc to June 10, 2022 pursuant to sections 328(a) and 1103 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). In support hereof, the Committee submits concurrently herewith the Declaration of Kathleen G. Furr (the “Furr Declaration”), which is attached as Exhibit A hereto, and respectfully represents as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. On April 15, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), Halco Lighting Technologies, LLC, Norcross Electric Supply Company, and Candela Corporation (the “Petitioning Creditors”) (the “Debtor”) filed an involuntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code against Atlanta Light Bulbs, Inc. (the “Debtor”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia (the “Court”). The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its property as debtor-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, though it has not yet chosen to participate in this case.

2. On June 8, 2022, the Office of the United States Trustee appointed the Committee as an official committee to represent the interests of unsecured creditors of the Debtors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 36, 38, and 41].

3. The Committee is comprised of the following entities:

Member	Primary Representative
Halco Lighting Technologies	Chris Chickanosky (Chair)
Candela Corporation	James Baas
Norcross Electric Supply Company	Jim C. Joedecke, Jr.

4. On June 10, 2022, the Committee selected Tucker Ellis LLP as lead counsel and Baker Donelson as Georgia counsel.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This Application constitutes a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157.

6. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

RELIEF REQUESTED

7. By this Application, the Committee respectfully requests that this Court enter an order authorizing it to employ Baker Donelson as co-counsel to the Committee, pursuant to sections 328(a) and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2014, nunc pro tunc to June 10, 2022. A proposed form of order is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”.

BAKER DONELSON’S QUALIFICATIONS

8. Baker Donelson has extensive experience and knowledge in the fields of corporate reorganization and bankruptcy law and is particularly well qualified for the type of representation that is required by the Committee. Baker Donelson has substantial experience in a number of areas of the law that may generate issues in these cases, and its attorneys have represented unsecured creditors' committees across the United States. Accordingly, Baker Donelson possesses the requisite expertise and background to handle matters that are likely to arise in this case.

SERVICES PROVIDED

9. The Committee believes that the services of Baker Donelson are necessary to enable the Committee to execute its duties. The Committee contemplates that Baker Donelson will provide the full range of services required to represent the Committee in the course of this chapter 11 case including:

- (a) advising the Committee on all legal issues as they arise;
- (b) representing and advising the Committee regarding the terms of any sales of assets or plans of reorganization or liquidation, and assisting the Committee in negotiations with the Debtor and other parties;
- (c) investigating the Debtor's assets and pre-bankruptcy conduct, as well as the pre-bankruptcy conduct of the Debtor's officers, directors and holders of equity interests;
- (d) analyzing the liens, claims and security interests of any of the Debtor's secured creditors, and where appropriate, raising challenges on behalf of the Committee;
- (e) preparing, on behalf of the Committee, all necessary pleadings, reports, and other papers;
- (f) representing and advising the Committee in all proceedings in these cases;

- (g) assisting and advising the Committee in its administration; and
- (h) providing such other services as are customarily provided by counsel to a creditors' committee in cases of this kind.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

10. The Committee desires to employ Baker Donelson as its co-counsel under the terms and conditions of the engagement letter attached as Exhibit "A" to the Furr Declaration. The Committee requests that all legal fees and related costs incurred by the Committee on account of services rendered by Baker Donelson in this case be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtor's estate in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable orders entered in these cases. Subject to the Court's approval, Baker Donelson will charge for its legal services on an hourly basis, billed in tenth-of-an-hour increments, in accordance with its hourly rates in effect on the date that such services were rendered. Baker Donelson's current billing rates for attorneys range from $360 per hour for bankruptcy associates to $735.00 per hour for senior bankruptcy shareholders; however, Kathleen G. Furr's current hourly billing rate is $545 per hour. Time devoted by paraprofessionals currently ranges from approximately $160.00 to $270.00 per hour. These hourly rates are typically subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions.<sup>1</sup>

11. The names, position, and hourly rates through January 31, 2022 for the Baker Donelson professionals expected to be primarily responsible for providing services to the Committee as co-counsel include: Kathleen G. Furr— Shareholder ($545/hour), Tim Colletti – Associate ($370/hour), and Locke Waldrop – Associate ($360/hour). In addition, from time to time, it may be necessary for other Baker Donelson professionals to provide services to the Committee.

12. Baker Donelson intends to charge for identifiable, non-overhead expenses incurred in connection with the case, which would not have been incurred except for representation of the Committee, in accordance with the guidelines of the United States Trustee. Baker Donelson will charge only the amount actually incurred by Baker Donelson in connection with such items. Examples of such expenses are postage, overnight mail, courier delivery, photocopying, travel expenses, and meals and lodging. Baker Donelson will maintain detailed records of any actual and necessary costs incurred in connection with the aforementioned legal services.

13. Baker Donelson intends to apply to the Court for allowance of such compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules and applicable orders of this Court, and the guidelines, practices, and customs of the United States Trustee. Baker Donelson has advised the Committee that Baker Donelson may seek interim compensation during these cases as permitted by applicable sections of the Bankruptcy Code including sections 330 and 331, the applicable Local Rules and applicable orders of this Court.

COMPLIANCE WITH LOCAL RULES

14. The Committee is requesting that this Application be approved retroactively to June 10, 2022, the date that Baker Donelson was selected as counsel to the Committee. This Application is filed within two (2) business days from the commencement of employment and is supported by a verified statement of disinterestedness and connections of Baker Donelson as set forth therein. Further, courts have held that retroactive approval of a professional may be granted by the bankruptcy court if timely requested and justified by the circumstances of the case See, e.g., City of Rockford v. Mallinckrodt (In re Mallinckrodt), 2022 WL 906451 (D. Del. Mar. 28, 2022); In re Schupbach Investments, LLC, 521 B.R. 449 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2014); Matter of Singson, 41 F.3d 316, 319 (7th Cir. 1994). Given the timeliness of the filing of this Application and the need to commence services immediately on behalf of the Committee, retroactive approval of the Application is appropriate under the circumstances.

15. Baker Donelson has submitted this Application to the U.S. Trustee. The parties appearing on the Proof of Service relating to this Application have also received notice. Baker Donelson submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice is necessary or required. A copy of the engagement agreement is attached as Exhibit “A” to the Furr Declaration.

BAKER DONELSON’S DISINTERESTEDNESS

16. Baker Donelson is in the process of completing a formal conflicts search for (a) each known creditor; (b) the Debtor and its equity holders; (c) all professionals employed in the chapter 11 cases; (d) the Debtor’s secured lender, and (e) all persons employed in the Office of the United States Trustee (Region 21).

17. Except as set forth in the Furr Declaration, to the best of Baker Donelson’s knowledge, information, and belief, Baker Donelson has had no connection, except as disclosed herein, with the Debtor, its creditors, the United States Trustee, any employee of the Office of the United States Trustee, the Bankruptcy Judge presiding in this case, or any party in interest, except that Baker Donelson may have appeared from time to time in the past, and may appear in the future, in other cases or matters in which one or more of such parties may have been or may be involved.

WHEREFORE, the Committee respectfully requests the entry of an order (a) authorizing and approving the employment of Baker Donelson as co-counsel to the Committee nunc pro tunc to June 10, 2022; and (b) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

Dated: June 13, 2022

DECLARATION OF KATHLEEN G. FURR

I, KATHLEEN G. FURR, hereby state and declare as follows:

1. I am over 21 years of age. I am a shareholder in the law firm of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, P.C. (“Baker Donelson”), which has offices at, among others, 3414 Peachtree Road, N.E., Suite 1500, Atlanta, Georgia 30326. I am a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of Georgia and am admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the United States District Courts for the Northern, Middle, and Southern Districts of Georgia. There are no disciplinary proceedings pending against me.

1. I am in all respects competent to make this declaration in support of the Application for Order Authorizing and Approving Employment of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, P.C. as Co-Counsel for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of Atlanta Light Bulbs, Inc., Nunc Pro Tunc to June 10, 2022 (the “Application”) of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) to retain and employ as its co-counsel in the above-captioned chapter 11 case pursuant to sections 328(a) and 1103 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), nunc pro tunc to June 10, 2022.

2. In connection with these cases, the Committee has requested authority to retain and employ Baker Donelson as the Committee’s co-counsel. The Committee seeks to retain Baker

Donelson, subject to the oversight and orders of the Court, to advise the Committee with respect to certain matters, including, in part, the following:

- (a) advising the Committee on all legal issues as they arise;
- (b) representing and advising the Committee regarding the terms of any sales of assets or plans of reorganization or liquidation, and assisting the Committee in negotiations with the Debtors and other parties;
- (c) investigating the Debtor's assets and pre-bankruptcy conduct;
- (d) analyzing the liens, claims and security interests of any of the Debtors' secured creditors, and where appropriate, raising challenges on behalf of the Committee;
- (e) preparing, on behalf of the Committee, all necessary pleadings, reports, and other papers;
- (f) representing and advising the Committee in all proceedings in this case;
- (g) assisting and advising the Committee in its administration; and
- (h) providing such other services as are customarily provided by counsel to a creditors' committee in cases of this kind.

3. Baker Donelson is qualified to serve as co-counsel for the Committee. Prior to private practice, I clerked for the then Chief Judge J. Craig Whitley for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of North Carolina for two (2) years. Thereafter, I clerked for Judge Wendy L. Hagenau for one (1) year with United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia. After my clerkships concluded, I joined Baker Donelson and have practice bankruptcy and work outs for more than eleven (11) years.

4. Baker Donelson requests that all legal fees and related costs incurred by the Committee on account of services rendered by Baker Donelson in this case be paid as administrative expenses of the Debtor's estate in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and applicable orders entered in this case.

5. Baker Donelson will charge for its legal services on an hourly basis, billed in tenth-of-an-hour increments, in accordance with its hourly rates in effect on the date that such services are rendered. Baker Donelson's current billing rates for attorneys range from $360 per hour for bankruptcy associates to $735.00 per hour for senior bankruptcy shareholders; however, my billing rate is currently set at $545 per hour. Time devoted by paraprofessionals currently ranges from approximately $160.00 to $270.00 per hour. These hourly rates are typically subject to periodic adjustments to reflect economic and other conditions.<sup>1</sup>

6. The names, position, and hourly rates through January 31, 2022 for the Baker Donelson professionals expected to be primarily responsible for providing services to the Committee as co-counsel include: Kathleen G. Furr – Shareholder ($545/hour), Tim Colletti – Associate ($370/hour), and Locke Waldrop – Associate ($360/hour). In addition, from time to time, it may be necessary for other Baker Donelson professionals to provide services to the Committee.

7. Baker Donelson will charge for identifiable, non-overhead expenses incurred in connection with the chapter 11 case, which would not have been incurred except for representation of the Committee, in accordance with the guidelines of the United States Trustee. Baker Donelson charges only the amount actually incurred by Baker Donelson in connection with such items.

<sup>1</sup> The rates charged by each Baker Donelson professional differ based on, among other things, the geographic location of the office in which such professional is resident, such professional's level of experience, and the rates normally charged by similar professionals.

Examples of such expenses are postage, overnight mail, courier delivery, photocopying, meals, travel expenses, and lodging. Baker Donelson will maintain detailed records of any actual and necessary costs incurred in connection with the aforementioned legal services.

8. Baker Donelson intends to apply to the Court for allowance of such compensation and reimbursement of expenses in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules and applicable orders of this Court, and the guidelines, practices, and customs of the United States Trustee. Baker Donelson has advised the Committee that Baker Donelson may seek interim compensation during these cases as permitted by applicable sections of the Bankruptcy Code including sections 330 and 331, the applicable Local Rules and applicable orders of this Court, including the Court's interim compensation procedures order which permits Committee professionals to file monthly interim fee statements.

9. Baker Donelson is in the process of completing a formal conflicts search for (a) each known creditor; (b) the Debtor and its equity holders; (c) all professionals employed in the chapter 11 cases; (d) the Debtor's secured lender, and (e) all persons employed in the Office of the United States Trustee (Region 21).

10. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, Baker Donelson has had no connection, except as disclosed herein, with the Debtor, its creditors, the United States Trustee, any employee of the Office of the United States Trustee, the Bankruptcy Judge presiding in this case, or any party in interest, except that Baker Donelson may have appeared from time to time in the past, and may appear in the future, in other cases or matters in which one or more of such parties may have been or may be involved.

11. Neither I, nor Baker Donelson, nor any shareholder or associate thereof, insofar as I have been able to ascertain (a) hold or represent any interest adverse to the Committee or the estate; (b) represent a creditor of the same class as any member of the Committee in connection with this case, or (c) represent any other entity in connection with this case having an interest adverse to the Committee with the following exception: I represented the three petitioning creditors as Georgia counsel in this matter for the purpose of filing the involuntary bankruptcy petition against the Debtor. There is no statutory prohibition against representing creditors and the Committee in a bankruptcy case. However, any individual representation of the three petitioning creditors has ended with the formation of a Committee. Further, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, other than in connection with its representation of the Committee in this case, Baker Donelson has no connection (connection being defined as a biological or contractual relationship) with the Debtor, its creditors, or other parties in interest or their respective attorneys or accountants, the United States Trustee or any person employed in the office of the United States Trustee.

12. Baker Donelson makes the following general and specific disclosures:

- Baker Donelson attorneys may have represented creditors in this case at previous firms in matters wholly unrelated to the chapter 11 cases. However, given the lack of information from the Debtor, any extent of this is currently unknown. Baker Donelson will continue to perform conflicts checks as the case continues.
- As noted above, I represented the three petitioning creditors solely to file this case as an involuntary bankruptcy case. That representation has ceased since the formation of the Committee.
- Some of Baker Donelson's professionals, in connection with their current employment, or before joining Baker Donelson, may have been engaged in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving, or were colleagues of, certain professionals, some of whom may have represented claimants and parties in interest in the Debtor's case.
- A formal conflict check is in process.

- Baker Donelson will continue to run expanded conflicts searches as further information about the Debtor's creditors is uncovered.

13. I believe that (i) Baker Donelson is disinterested as that term is defined in Section 1010(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (ii) Baker Donelson does not represent any interest materially adverse to the interests of the Debtor's estate or any class of creditors or equity security holders thereof.

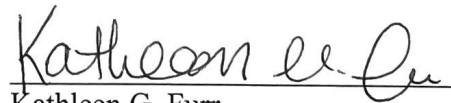

14. Baker Donelson has not shared or agreed to share (a) any compensation it has received or may receive in connection with these cases with another party or person, other than with the partners, of counsel, associates, contract attorneys, and law clerks associated with Baker Donelson; or (b) any compensation another person or party has received or may receive in connection with these cases.

15. Baker Donelson reserves its right to supplement this declaration should it appear that Baker Donelson has a relationship with any of the foregoing parties or additional parties in interest in this case if that interest is material or would impact Baker Donelson's disinterestedness.

16. The disclosures set forth herein are based on our initial review of the pleadings filed in this case and will be supplemented, if necessary, upon completion of a formal conflict analysis.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dear Chris and Committee Members:

This letter will confirm the terms and conditions on which Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, PC (the “Firm”) will undertake to represent the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) appointed in the Chapter 11 bankruptcy case of Atlanta Light Bulbs, Inc. having case number 22-52950-pmb and pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Georgia (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

The Firm is being retained solely as co-counsel for the Committee and our representation pursuant to the terms of this letter does not encompass the representation of any other individual or any other entity, including the individual members of the Committee.

All fees and expenses incurred by the Firm will be subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, and shall be governed by the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court, and any orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court in these cases.

I will be the partner in charge of this matter with assistance from other partners, counsel, associates, law clerks and paraprofessionals at the Firm as may be appropriate.

With respect to all matters, the Firm will bill its time on an hourly basis in tenth-of-an-hour increments at standard billing rates in effect at the time that services are rendered. My current rate is $545 per hour. Rates may adjust on a yearly basis.

In addition, the Firm’s invoices will include charges for services and costs which law firms customarily charge in addition to fees for legal services, and which will also be subject to Bankruptcy Court approval. These costs include travel expenses (including mileage, parking, airfare, lodging, meals and ground transportation), messenger and delivery services, filing fees and similar expenses for services rendered by third parties. The Firm’s invoices may also include charges for costs and services such as computerized legal research. Upon request, we will provide a schedule of the current costs for the various services.

The Firm understands that its retention, and the allowance and payment of its fees and expenses, are subject to relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, as well as orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Firm further understands that it may look only to the Debtor's bankruptcy estate – and not to the Committee or its individual members – for the payment of its fees and expenses.

In the course of our engagement, we are likely to come into possession of copies or originals of documents or other materials belonging to the estate, creditors, and other parties-in-interest. Upon conclusion of the Chapter 11 case, you should advise the Firm as to which, if any, of the documents and materials in our files should be returned, or alternatively, the Firm may seek guidance from the Court as to the disposition of such files. Any documents not destroyed at the conclusion of the case may be retained in the Firm's files for a time and then destroyed in accordance with the document retention program then in effect.

If you have any questions concerning this letter or our representation, please call the undersigned at (404) 221-6533.

Sincerely,
